Tie-dye Lost Item Claim Form

By filling out this form, you are claiming the following:

1. you are the student in question or, in the case that the student is a minor, the student's parent or guardian;
2. the student in question was registered to attend the "Tie-Dye ANYTHING! (all day Saturday)" class at Splash! 2007 as organized by the MIT Educational Studies program (ESP);
3. the student attended the class;
4. the student paid ESP through the class instructor or other representatives for items to be tie-dyed and/or brought items to the class to be tie-dyed;
5. one or more of the items bought or brought were not returned to the student (these items are the "Lost Items"); and
6. the value you assign to the Lost Items represent, in the case of items purchased from ESP, the amount paid to ESP, or in the case of personal items brought to the class, the fair market value for those items.

At the same time, by filling out this form, you are acknowledging the following:

1. neither the availability of this form nor the offer of compensation it services is an assumption of liability for Lost Items;
2. this claim is subject to review and verification;
3. individual Lost Items must be described and valued below and/or on attached sheets;
4. neither MIT nor the class instructor is liable for any Lost Items other than those claimed below;
5. both MIT and the class instructor are released from any and all liability with respect to the Lost Items upon payment of the claimed amount; and
6. claims for Lost Items must be received by the MIT Educational Studies Program by 5pm January 16, 2008 either by postal mail to 84 Massachusetts Ave; Room W20-467; Cambridge, MA 02139 or by fax to (708) 253-4881.
