

Mots-clés Key words

1. You meet up with a French speaking colleague. How do you ask:
How are you?

C _ _ _ _ _ a v _ ?

2. The answer is very well thank you. What is it in French?

T _ _ b _ _ _ _ _ i

3. Use the clues to complete the grid. When you've finished, the vertical word will be what you say if you step on someone's foot!

- a The French translation for please
- b Your answer to a friend who asks how you are
- c Goodbye
- d Calling the waitress's attention
- e Greeting someone after 5 p.m.
- f Refusing politely

★ In English, the infinitive consists of to + verb, e.g. to read, to buy, to travel. ★

Here are some French infinitives. You probably know some of them already or can guess what they mean. See how many you can match up with their English counterparts.

- | | |
|-------------|-----------------|
| a parler | to wash |
| b habiter | to travel |
| c organiser | to arrive |
| d entrer | to verify/check |
| e voyager | to invite |
| f porter | to live |
| g vérifier | to speak |
| h inviter | to carry/wear |
| i laver | to organise |
| j arriver | to enter |

Numbers

E	Y	Q	N	I	C
R	S	E	P	T	R
T	M	I	D	I	X
A	O	N	E	U	F
U	L	U	U	H	I
Q	S	H	X	I	S

1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20

A.

The numbers one to ten are listed in this wordsearch except for one. Which one is it? Read horizontally or vertically, either forwards or backwards.

B. As numbers are very important, here's another chance to practise them. Write your answers to the sums below (in words not figures).

- | | |
|-------------------------|-------------------------|
| a deux + trois = | e dix - huit = |
| b cinq + quatre = | f sept - trois = |
| c neuf + un = | g trois × trois = |
| d six + trois = | h quatre × deux = |

★ Days

The days of the week, which are all masculine, are:

- Sunday
- Monday
- Tuesday
- Wednesday
- Thursday
- Friday
- Saturday

Star Signs

