Junction is a daily program that will run Monday through Thursday during the evenings for 6 weeks from June 30 to August 7. It is a more intense program with the goal of teaching you a college-level course in an exciting and relaxed academic atmosphere.

You can apply online until May 25, 2008 at esp.mit.edu.

Need something to do this Summer? Wish Splash were longer? Come to MIT this summer and try one of ESP’s programs!

HSSP, the High School Studies Program, is a weekly program that runs on Sunday afternoons for 8 weeks from June 29 to August 17. Come learn cool and unusual topics from hands-on work with speakers to theoretical math to history discussions. We’re a bunch of college students who want to teach about what we’re interested in.

You can register online starting May 12, 2008 at esp.mit.edu.
