Permission Slip for Minority Report

Minority Report is a 2002 science fiction film directed by Steven Spielberg, loosely based on the Philip K. Dick short story of the same name. It is set in Washington, D.C. in the year 2054, where a special police department called "pre-crime" apprehends criminals based on foreknowledge, provided by three psychics termed "pre-cogs". The film stars Tom Cruise as John Anderton, a pre-crime officer, who heads the pre-crime police force Minority Report was one of the best reviewed films of 2002, and was nominated for and won several awards. These included four Saturn Awards, including Best Science Fiction Film and Best Direction, Minority Report’s rating is PG-13 violence, brief language, some sexuality and drug content. Several of the ethical and scientific themes of the movie will be discussed afterwards, handled in an adult and objective manner.

By signing this form, I give my son / daughter permission to watch the movie Minority Report and to participate in the optional subsequent discussions as part of the HSSP program.
